Moody Air Force Base

Constructed originally as an Army Air Corps pilot training base during World War II, Moody Air Force Base (AFB) has become one Air Combat Command's busiest bases in supporting U.S interests around the globe.

The 23d Wing and 93 AGOW deliver devastating combat capability through deployable aircraft and personnel capable of executing Close Air Support, Global Precision Attack, Personnel Recovery and Agile Combat Support, while maintaining an elite force of expeditionary Airmen in support of combatant commanders around the world. The 23d Wing oversees all aircraft maintenance and provides standardized weapons loading and academics training in support of the wing's annual 1,100 sorties and 6,000 flying hours. Moody AFB remains a vital component to United States national security objectives and home to the world famous Flying Tigers!
